REPORT OF THE FOREST FIRE WARDEN AND DISTRICT CHIEF

Fire records are made by people — those who cause fires and those who control them. Your forest fire warden, deputy wardens, fire chief and firemen have, in spite of a prolonged drought, made one of the best fire control records in recent years. Despite a very dry spring, we in New Hampshire working together, have substantially reduced our fire incidence (885 in 1965 to 595 in 1966.)

This enviable record is largely due to two factors:

1. A closely coordinated and integrated state-town organization jointly carrying out programs of forest fire prevention, training and suppression with dedicated personnel.
2. Your appreciation of our forest fire control program and your individual effort in practicing fire prevention.

Statistics show, however, there is room for improvement. Major problems are still with us; (1) the careless disposal of cigarettes; (2) the householder's carelessness in burning rubbish; (3) the failure of woodlot owners and contractors to completely extinguish their brush burning fires; (4) failure to extinguish camp fires; (5) unsupervised children playing with matches.

New Hampshire has 4,339,000 acres of woodland to be protected. In 1966 we experienced 595 forest fires on this area and restricted acreage burned to 395 acres — a fine testimonial to the efficiency and dedication of the men who make up our forest fire control organization.

1. If you must burn you will need a permit. Permits are not issued between 9:00 A.M. and 5:00 P.M. except on rainy days. Permits are not needed when the ground is covered with snow. To minimize risk the best way to dispose of rubbish is at your authorized town or municipal dumping area.
2. Be sure all discarded smoking material is out.
3. Don't leave a live camp or cooking fire.
4. Most important — Instruct your children that matches are not play things.

TRULY—ONLY YOU CAN PREVENT FOREST FIRES

Fires in District: 42 Fires in Barnstead: 3

Acres burned: 26½ Acres burned: ½

A fine record in Barnstead.

B. REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the School Board and Citizens of the Barnstead School District:

I respectfully submit my first annual report as your Superintendent of Schools.

Computers, electronics, antibiotics, electromation, space age and many other such terms tend to identify the future which the youth of Barnstead will face. The rapid expansion of knowledge is unbelievable. As an example, in the early 1900's, a single student textbook on basic science contained practically all the essential information known about the subject at that time. To cover the same material today would require a study of sixty-four books.

The students of today have a great deal more knowledge to acquire in order to become productive members of the community. It becomes necessary for the schools to keep pace with this knowledge explosion and to give the student adequate preparation. To do this the schools require the support of the people in Barnstead.

It has been witnessed that a greater demand has been placed upon the elementary schools. The fundamentals of reading, writing and arithmetic are still of primary importance, but there is now emphasis placed upon social studies, art, music, language arts, science and health. The proper preparation of students to enter high school should also involve experiences in industrial arts for the boys and home economics for the girls, as well as physical education for both.

Consideration needs to be given to ways in which we can improve the Barnstead students entering high school. Eight years of education is not adequate. Through proper preparation, the students will meet with greater success in high school and less apt to become a drop-out. The present facilities are adequate for the first six grades, but there are limitations as to providing the junior high student with the experiences so necessary for success.

If our schools are to keep pace with the knowledge explosion we must adopt the techniques brought forth by advances in technology. As recent educational research points out, schools must use entirely new approaches to the teaching and learning process if they hope to find a feasible way to stress the kind of inquiry which is meaningful to students faced with this wealth of information. The old time slate gave way to the McGuffey Reader, the unskilled to the highly skilled, the horse to the locomotive. In the face of such complexity schools cannot be expected to use the simpler solutions suited for an era when everything moved slowly. It is believed that you, the citizens of Barnstead, will realize the need for improving the educational opportunities of your youth, who so justly deserve such a start in life.

In closing, we solicit the support of parents, business men, citizens and all other agencies in our common effort to improve our greatest natural resource, the boys and girls of Barnstead.

Respectfully submitted,
 DAMON A. RUSSELL,
 Superintendent of Schools

C. REPORT OF THE ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the members of the School Board and the Citizens of Barnstead it is with pleasure that I submit my first annual report as Assistant Superintendent of Schools.

After only seven brief months in my present position I find it impossible not to form some opinions. Certainly the citizens of Barnstead can be very proud of their fine school building, and also of the fine manner in which the school board members have constantly provided up-to-date books and materials. The teaching staff, under the direct leadership of the new principal, Mr. McCarthy, is also made up of a group of energetic, sincere, conscientious people who genuinely concern themselves with the children in their care.

New approaches to teaching are being utilized. In education today a concerted effort is being made to have children "understand" what they learn, and to do this wherever possible in some manner which allows the child to find or "discover" his own answers. This process is more difficult to teach, and initially the learner is quite often confused, but it is felt that in the final analysis the education or total learning will better prepare the child to take his place in this democratic society.

The three R's have been greatly expanded to include reading, mathematics, language, science, social studies, spelling, penmanship, art, music, home economics, and physical education in grades 1 to 8. Many of these programs are presently staffed by volunteers who want very much to assist the children of Barnstead to have every opportunity that children anywhere else would have.

The tax rate in this community, like any other, can bear only so much. My hat is off to the citizens of Barnstead in that it is very obvious that financial support of the school has been very good in past years. Before closing, however, I would like to mention from a strictly educational point of view some considerations for the future.

1. An additional teacher to completely eliminate the combination grades, or possibly decreasing the staff by one and sending seventh and eighth graders to another school where they could have full benefit of programs in home economics, industrial arts, physical training, guidance etc.
2. Continued investment in equipment that enables teachers to do a better job and makes learning easier to understand for the child.
3. Provisions for young children who are in need of special education through no fault of their own. The regular situation is unfair to them and to the others in the classroom.

In closing, may I express my thanks once again to parents, citizens, board members, and teachers for your fine support and cooperation thus far. It is only through such cooperative efforts that we together can truly provide the educational opportunities they deserve to the children of Barnstead.

REPORT OF PRINCIPAL

School opened on September 7th with four new teachers: Mrs. Marilyn Staples, grade 1; Mrs. Lois Johanson, grade 5; Mr. Paul R. Aldrich, mathematics and science, grades 6, 7, and 8; and Mr. Robert R. McCarthy, language arts and social studies, grades 6, 7, and 8. Mrs. Alma Pitman chose to change her teaching assignment from the first to the second grade, and Mrs. Rachel Kidder who had taught both grade 4 and 5 in the past, chose to teach grade 4 with the addition of Mrs. Johanson as a full-time teacher for grade 5.

Although the Barnstead Elementary School did have an unwritten policy for parents and students, it was decided at the August school board meeting that this policy should be written so that students and parents could have copies as guidelines and misunderstandings with regard to the operation of the school would be eliminated. Using the state guidelines and student handbooks from elementary schools throughout the state, the policy was written, approved by the school board, and distributed to students and parents in the community.

In order to insure program continuity and prevent the duplication of teaching throughout the school, regardless of teacher turnover, a Curriculum Guide Committee headed by Mrs. Rachel Kidder with Mr. Aldrich and Miss Crosby was established. This committee, using state guidelines and curriculum guides from other schools throughout Union 49, prepared an outline for all grades and subjects. All teachers have worked with the committee to insure that the final outline includes those areas prescribed by law as well as those which the faculty feels to be of particular interest and benefit to Barnstead students.

In cooperation with the Barnstead Town Library and especially due to the efforts of Mrs. Henry Grau, the town librarian, a library program for students was initiated. Students in grades 2 through 8 may visit the library once a month during school time. Until this program was started, many bus students could not always get to the library to borrow books for projects or simply for their own enjoyment. Grade 1 students will visit the library in the spring. Students walk to the library with their classroom teachers and Mr. Henry Knirsch has donated the bus transportation for the return trip from the library.

Mrs. Staples attended the New England Reading Conference in Boston this fall. New trends and breakthroughs in the teaching of reading were discussed and demonstrated by reading authorities from throughout the country. In turn, Mrs. Staples reported these new findings and decisions to the faculty. Mrs. Staples is the Library Program Coordinator for the school, as well as the Barnstead representative to the Union 49 teachers' association.

All grades have utilized Channel 11's educational programs in the areas of reading, music, and science.

Mr. Aldrich has been the coordinator of a film series for students using library films provided by the New Hampshire State Library and sponsored by the Barnstead Library, as well as a series of science films provided by various large corporations.

Mrs. Johanson has been the audio-visual coordinator for the school and the school library advisor.

In cooperation with the other members of the faculty, Mrs. Pitman has been the holiday program coordinator. Each class assumes the responsibility for presenting a program to commemorate the important holidays throughout the year.

National Education Week was observed with an Open House program at school. Parents were served refreshments in the school lobby and were able to discuss their children's progress with the teachers in the various classrooms. Representative samples of each student's work were available at the students' desks.

An informal junior high soccer league was formed this past fall to implement the lack of an organized physical education program. Barnstead played two games against Gilmanton and one against Pittsfield. It is planned that this program will continue and grow in the future.

More than 45 students in grades 6 to 8 availed themselves of the PTA sponsored ski program. This year two of the eight ski lessons were held at the Gunstock Ski Area. The ski program received five pages of photographs and text and much praise in the December issue of Profiles magazine.

As well as sponsoring the ski program, the PTA this year also sponsored a home economics program for the girls in grades 6 through 8. Mrs. Russell Krause outlined the courses for the volunteer instructors. Mrs. Clarence Westlund teaches the sixth grade sewing class, Mrs.

Shirley Phillips, the seventh grade cooking and nutrition class, and Mrs. Rodney Boyd, the eighth grade sewing class. A display of the girls' accomplishments is planned for this spring.

Mrs. William Parent has volunteered to teach a weekly art class to interested students in grades 6 through 8. Projects have included paper-mache figures, book plates, tempera paintings, and drawings. Both Mrs. Parent and Miss Crosby attended the U.N.H. art course for art teachers in Concord last fall.

In preparation for our Christmas Concert, Mrs. Charles Cate, who has had much training and experience in directing both adult and youth choirs, volunteered to work with the Barnstead students. The success of the concert was a result of many hours of work on the part of Mrs. Cate and the students.

Keeping abreast of changing and improved teaching methods, Mrs. Pitman, Miss Crosby, and Mrs. Kidder are attending the U.N.H. sponsored science course for elementary school teachers, in Rochester.

The faculty wishes to express its gratitude to those townspeople who have offered their continuing support to the educational program and the best interests of Barnstead students. The principal wishes to reinforce this sentiment and especially thank a very cooperative faculty for a successful year.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT R. McCARTHY,
Principal
